

Join Us for the 29th Anniversary — Celebration of the ADA! —

The Minnesota Department of Human Rights Commissioner Rebecca Lucero will launch the celebration by grounding us in the importance of the ADA to ensure everyone can lead full lives, rich with dignity and joy, and free from discrimination.

Friday, July 26

1 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Anderson Center at Hamline University

774 Snelling Ave N,
St. Paul, MN 55104

Featuring Gaelynn Lea

*Violinist, songwriter, and 2016
NPR Tiny Desk Contest winner*

More perspectives on discrimination and the ADA will be featured in a panel discussion.

Sponsors:

- Access Press • ADA Minnesota • City of Duluth Commission on Disabilities • City of Minneapolis
- Hamline University Archives • Hamline University Office of Disability Resources • Hennepin County
 - Metropolitan Center for Independent Living • Minnesota Council of Disability
 - Minnesota Department of Human Rights • Minnesota Department of Human Services
- Minnesota Department of Transportation • Minnesota Disability Law Center • VSA Minnesota

ASL interpreters, CART, and audio description provided on site.

For more information or to request an accommodation by July 17, 2019, please contact
Cindy Tarshish at cindyt@mcil-mn.org or 651-603-2015.